VINO VERO

YOUR QUALITY WINE SUPPLIER

Two countries, five renowned regions and six family wineries whose wonderful wines you can now taste.

Italy, region Veneto, province of Treviso, appellation Asolo, Tenuta Baron. A young dynamic winery of the Baron family, continuing in the second generation the work of the excellent winemaker Andrea Sbrissi, producing excellent white and rosé sparkling wines, but also very high quality still wines.

Italy, region Veneto, province of Treviso, appellation Valdobbiadene, Vedova Tarcisio. A family winery, now run by the fifth and sixth generation of the Vedova and Tarcisio families, offering excellent sparkling wines. These wines are born in one of the oldest parts of Valdobbiadene, namely the Saccol area.

Italy, region Tuscany, province of Livorno, appellation Bolgheri, Podere Il Castellaccio. A small family winery, now run by the third generation of the Scappini family, producing absolutely stunning still wines, and for the most part red ones. The range is complemented by the excellent white Ardiglione.

Italy, region Tuscany, province of Livorno, appellation Bolgheri, Dario di Vaira. A small family winery with a tradition of being one of the first wineries in the area, which began to be established here in the 1960s. This winery offers wonderful both white and red still wines.

Hungary, Somogy county, Fonyód district, Balatonboglár region, Konyári. A young family winery currently run by the second generation of the Konyári family. This winery offers beautiful still wines across the spectrum from whites to rosés and to reds.

Italy, region Marche, province of Pesaro e Urbino, appellation of Sant'Andrea di Suasa, Savelli. The winery is now run by the 4th generation of the Savelli family. The winery produces all its wines without the use of any chemistry. From the range of white Bellaluce and red still wine Castel Suasa, which is aged for at least 5 years in barrels and bottles.
